The number of students participation given in DVV varies from the data submitted with the SSR because:

- 1) The NCC unit of the college has a sanctioned strength of 60 cadets that include both Senior college and Junior college students. Therefore, the exact number of student participation given here is calculated by subtracting junior college students.
- 2) College has NSS unit of 300 Volunteers. One volunteers can participate in more than one activity.
- 3) For Blood donation activity Senior College students, Junior College students and College Staff is involved. List of the students is prepared by subtracting junior college students and college staff.
- 4) Self-defence activity is open for all the students Number of students participation is calculated by subtracting Junior college students
- 5) List of the students participated is prepared without repeating the same students more than once.
