Self Defense training Programme

b) Counselling

1. Personal Counselling-

College shows utmost concern towards the wellbeing of students. To address the student stress, career advice and family concerns, the college has set up student counselling Centre in the Department of Psychology. A qualified faculty counsellor is looking after this counselling center. The counselling service will address various degrees of the problem and provide suitable solution from time to time.

Members and their role: Members of the counselling are Prof. Kamankar, Prof Ms. Bagul Nalini, Dr. Shradha Raravikar Faculty counsellor counsel students for the academic, personal and family issues. In the beginning of every academic year, counselling cell releases a notice informing about the cell and appeals students to visit cell for personal and academic concerns.

The students visit cell on their own or on the referral of other teachers. The teacher of Psychology obtains thorough information of students' issues, family background and related information to prepare detail case report. Psychological tests are conducted if necessary. Parents are asked to visit the cell if required. The concerned teacher keeps the information confidential as confidentiality is the basic norm of counselling. All these services are unrestricted and free.

Report

The department of the Psychology runs a Counselling Cell to look after student wellbeing and enhance their academic performance.

With the noble intent to look after students' issues and thereby enhance their academic performance, the college actively runs a counselling cell. The faculties of Department of Psychology counsel students for the academic, personal and family issues. In the beginning of every academic year, counselling cell releases a notice informing about the cell and appeals students to visit cell for personal and academic concerns.

The department of Psychology circulates notice regarding the functioning of Counselling Cell in the beginning of every academic year. The students visit cell on their own or on the referral of other teachers. The teacher of Psychology obtains thorough information of students' issues, family background and related information to prepare detail case report. Psychological tests are conducted if necessary. Parents are asked to visit the cell if required. The concerned teacher keeps the information confidential as confidentiality is the basic norm of counselling. All these services are unrestricted and free.

Total 13 students visited Counselling Cell during this academic year. The issues were either resolved or students were referred to further counselling. Some students or their parents show reluctance to go to a psychologist or psychiatrist for further treatment. An in-house fulltime psychologist can do more help in this regard.
